
Contents

1. Preface
W. Weimar	9
 2. Global Issues, Local Solutions/Global Outreach
Personal rights and the acquisition of organs Timothy M. Wilkinson	13
Organ donation and transplantation in emerging economies S. A. Anwar Naqvi, Mirza Naqi Zafar & S. Adibul Hasan Rizvi	17
The Declaration of Istanbul on organ trafficking and transplant tourism: the first five years Gabriel M. Danovitch	24
 3. Cross-Border Transplants
Success factors to decrease foreign transplants in Colombia, South America Néstor F. Pedraza, Fernando Girón, Alejandro Nino, Jorge E. Rodriguez, Yenny A. Baez	33
International norms, local worlds: An ethnographic perspective on organ trafficking in the Israeli context Zvika Orr	39
The new crime of human organ trafficking in Spain. An approach to comparative law Clara Moya Guillem	50
 4. Increasing Living Donation
Improving cooperation between forensic pathologists and transplant teams in Belarus: A strategy for increasing transplant organs supply Andrei Famenka	59
Improving communication and consent for organ donation among minority ethnic groups: Development and evaluation of a hospital based intervention Myfanwy Morgan, Charlotte Kenten, Jessica Sims, Tim Newton	63
Nudges for organ donation. How do they work? Ana Manzano	71

Inter-institutional collaboration in order to reduce the opposition rate to organ donation in the population Simonetta Nieri, Paolo Maria Geraci, Massimo Abelli, Maurizio Campagnoli, Gianni Lodi, Carla Martinotti, Federica Meloni, Carlo Pellegrini, Elena Ticozzelli, Guido Fontana	79
---	----

Consensus – a threat to public engagement Anne Hambro Alnæs	83
---	----

5. Increasing Deceased Donation

Will the GABOIR data registry help to improve the health and risk stratification in ABO-incompatible living kidney transplantation? Silvia Hils, Marcel Geyer, Albrecht Kramer-Zucker, Przemyslaw Pisarski	93
---	----

Increase kidney transplantation. The Irish organ donors, mandatory consent choices era Arwa Nicola Shuhaiber	102
--	-----

Transplant professionals' views on the ethical challenges associated with altruistic unbalanced paired kidney exchange Céline Durand, Andrée Duplantie, Marie-Chantal Fortin	110
---	-----

Maximizing 'O'pportunities for living kidney donation Robert Lam, Linda Wright, Michael Campbell, Olusegun Famure, S. Joseph Kim	120
--	-----

Attitudes towards living organ donation in two Romanian universities Harald Jung, Mihaela Frunză	130
--	-----

Living organ donation in Europe: Barriers and opportunities through the stakeholders' eyes. Results from focus groups in four European countries Assya Pascalev, Yordanka Krastev, Adelina Ilieva	138
--	-----

Ethical challenges in living organ donation Assya Pascalev, Yordanka Krastev, Adelina Ilieva	152
--	-----

Legal issues in living organ donation in the member states of the EU Leonie L. Lopp	160
---	-----

Reflections on the Israeli legislation on transplantation David M. Wood & David A. Frenkel	167
--	-----

6. Children as Donors and Recipients

The pediatric priority in organ allocation is not necessary and is counterproductive – proposal for an alternative ethical model Jean-Luc Wolff, Michel Carrier, Melanie Masse & Natacha Philippe	177
--	-----

Gift dynamics and identity construction within the family Karl-Leo Schwering, Isabelle Aujoulat	181
---	-----

7. Psychosocial Care

Health literacy and self-management among kidney transplant patients

Louise Maasdam, Emma K. Massey, Marleen C. de Haan-van Buren, Mirjam Tielen,

Judith Kal-van Gestel, Michiel G. H. Betjes, Willem Weimar. 191

Pancreatic transplantation in patients with T1DM: a source of traumatic stress?

Sue Jackson, Kate Gleeson, R. M. Smith. 197

Compliance to treatment and family support in kidney-pancreas transplantation recipients

Susana M. Bayardo, Silvia R. Groppa, Sung Ho Hyon 206

Psychosocial benefits of upper limb transplantation

Adam Chelmoński, Katarzyna Kowal, Jerzy Jablecki. 215

How can the past experience of donors and recipients inform the psychosocial screening of candidates for living kidney transplantation?

Deborah Ummel & Marie Achille. 223

Who has extreme expectations of donation?

Exploring the psychological profile of living kidney donors

Lotte Timmerman, Mirjam Laging, Willij C. Zuidema, Jan N. M. IJzermans,

Michiel G. H. Betjes, Jan J. V. Busschbach, Willem Weimar, Emma K. Massey 230

Telemedically supported aftercare in living kidney recipients –

an innovative project at the transplantation center Freiburg

Design and first results of a prospective ongoing study

Silvia Hils, Anja Schmid, Dieter Hauschke, Lioudmila Bogatyreva,

Przemyslaw Pisarski 240

Donors and recipients of living donor liver transplantation:

How can a metasummary of their experience inform the psychosocial screening?

Deborah Ummel & Marie Achille. 248

8. Autonomy at the End of Life

Exploring organ donation with bereaved relatives, healthcare professional's experiences in three European countries

Barbara Louise Neades. 257

Non-standard kidneys for transplant: Clinical margins, medical morality, and the law

Antonia J. Cronin & James F. Douglas. 264

Rethinking the role of consent in relation to post mortem organ transplantation

Austen AP Garwood-Gowers & Janine Moreton. 272

Non-standard resuscitation in refractory cardiac arrest: saving patients' lives, first and, when not possible, preserving organs

Iván Ortega-Deballon & E. de la Plaza-Horche. 279

Organ donation after euthanasia: views of professional community in Slovenia
Jana Šimenc, Danica Avsec 284

DCDD: What are we waiting for?
Alicia Pérez Blanco & Pablo de Lora 290

9. Donor Recruitment, Altruism and Compensation

Should postmortal donation be motivated by altruism?
Govert den Hartogh 299

A regulated system of incentives for living donation: a challenge to define and understand the objections
Arthur J. Matas 304

10. Anonymity

Ethics and the requirement of anonymity in organ donation:
An uneasy and unsettled bond
Medard T. Hilhorst 311

Contact between living anonymous donors and recipients: ethical issues
Linda Wright & Kyle W. Anstey 317

11. Hot Topics in Allocation

Is it possible to transplant restored kidneys?
Miyako Takagi 327

Corresponding authors 333

Index of authors 336