

Contents

Acknowledgments	7
Editors	9
1 Evidence in European social drug research and drug policy: an introduction Aileen O’Gorman	11
2 Revisiting ‘Looking at the UN, smelling a rat. A comment on Sweden’s successful drug policy: a review of the evidence’ Peter D. A. Cohen	19
3 Evidence-based policymaking as depoliticised governance strategy: the case of European drug policy Adam Standring	33
4 The user in Swedish abstinence-oriented opioid substitution therapy: a closer look at how user involvement bears upon policy formation Mats Ekendahl & Patrik Karlsson	51
5 Rethinking evidence in online social drug use research Dave Boothroyd & Sarah Lewis	69
6 Truth or tale? The production, selection, and interpretation of evidence informing municipal policy on public use of soft drugs Danielle Chevalier	85
7 Drug testing for evidence? A sociotechnical practice Bettina Paul & Simon Egbert	99
8 Sex & drugs & EDM: the use and distribution of drugs within a London chemsex scene Christine Schierano & Gary R. Potter	113
Contributors	131